FOREWORD

We hope this yearbook will serve as a permanent record of your activities which, although dimmed by the passage of time, may be quickly brought back into light as you turn the pages.

Time that has passed can never return, but the memories of your high school days will always linger on. We have tried to incorporate in this yearbook, the friends, the teachers, and the events that you will want to remember for the rest of your life.

The editors and staff of the Cardinal would like to express their sincere thanks to all those who have helped and aided in making this '62 Cardinal a success.

Ken and Kathy Cardinal have 40 extra-curricular activities at Kenmore from which to choose. The clubs' objectives vary widely. For example, the Science Club wishes: "To promote study and interest in science (biology, chemistry, physics) among students," while the Booster Club tries "To boost school spirit."

Our organizations help students to develop many good qualities.

Leadership
Sportsmanship
Initiative
Responsibility
Tact
Cooperation
Moral Strength
Self-Discipline

These are things that our clubs and organizations can develop in you. The protection of our democracy is every man's responsibility. The school gives each of us "tools" that we may use to fulfill our responsibility as citizens. The classroom gives us many of these "tools," but our clubs give us several that a class will not give.

IN APPRECIATION

Now that the 1962 Cardinal Yearbook has been completed, the entire staff can give a sigh of relief. We can say farewell to the hectic days just before a deadline and to all the other responsibilities of putting out a yearbook.

To each member of the staff, I would like to express my sincere thanks for a job well done. Beverly Bickey, who was managing editor, was helpful in many ways.

Marilyn Richards, feature editor, along with her assistants, Gerry Williams and Pamela Prentice, accomplished the job of getting all of the seniors and their activities into the book in a new and interesting way.

Karen Aman, and her assistant Carolyn Gondos, worked on the job of organizing the underclassmen section of the book. This particular section includes all of Kenmore's students, except the seniors.

Janet Grace, who was ably assisted by Sharon Grether and Sandra Fauser, did a fine job on the club section of the book.

Janice Hope and Donna Dye worked diligently over the sports pages. Janice was helped by Patti McKiernan in the circulation of the newspaper and yearbook.

The faculty section was handled by George Tihanyi and his assistant Donna Dye.

Without business manager Robert Myers, his assistants Pamela Prentice and Jim Welling, and the many local and area firms they contacted, this yearbook would not have been possible.

Frances Knipp and Judy Groetz, our able typists, always came through when we needed them most even though they were busy with newspaper stories.

John Payne and Pamela King both added their own special touches to this book. Whenever we needed a picture on the spot, John was ready to help. Pamela's fine art work can be found throughout the book.

The staff and I would like to thank Mr. Joseph Friedman, our advisor, who has been of tremendous help in presenting ideas and suggestions in the making of this yearbook. Our sincere thanks go to our patrons and advertisers, and to all those other fine people who may have been inadvertently unmentioned. We hope that this book will hold wonderful memories for all for many years to come.

Thank you again,

Yvonne Williams Editor-in-Chief
